

Scholarships to study in China

Scholarships are provided for undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate programmes at the University, as well as for the study of the Chinese language. The university offers a wide range of educational programs at various levels, including medicine and dentistry.

Requirements for applicants:

- To study Chinese - age up to 55 years.
- To study for bachelor's programmes - age up to 25 years, a high school diploma.
- For master's degree - age up to 35 years, a bachelor's degree.
- For postgraduate studies - age up to 45 years, a master's degree.
- Knowledge of English or Chinese (IELTS certificate)

The scholarship covers tuition fees. The scholarship does NOT cover the costs of administrative fees, textbooks, thesis defence, medical examination and insurance policy. Scholarship in the amount of CNY 750 per month and funds to cover living expenses (CNY 3000 per month) are provided only to postgraduate students.

The deadline for applications is June 30 each year.

For more information, contact the International Relations Department, Morphological Corps, Room 413.